THE TRAVANCORE REFORMATORY SCHOOLS ACT (AMENDMENT) BILL.

MR. PUTHUPALLY S. KRISHNA PILLAI: The only remaining item of legislative business is the one relating to the Travancore Reformatory Schools Act (Amendment) Bill. It is a very small Bill containing only one or two clauses conferring power on Government to frame rules for granting youthful offenders short periods of vacation. At present those who are incarcerated in the Reformatory School are not entitled to enjoy any vacation. Under the Madras Act, provision is made for granting short periods of vacation. It has been recommended by the Committee of Visitors of the Reformatory School that we should also effect a reform in our Act, so that the same concession may be shown to the youthful offenders kept in our Reformatory School also. I beg leave to introduce the Bill and move that the Bill be read in the Assembly.
